Press Release

May 30, 2022 - Cindy Lincicome, F.SAME, TLI Construction, Inc. Sworn in as President of the Society of American Military Engineers

Cindy became the 103rd president of SAME, a global organization of nearly 28,000 members. TLI Construction, Inc. congratulates President, Cindy Lincicome, F.SAME, in her inauguration as the National President of the Society of American Military Engineers (SAME). Cindy became the third female president of SAME, a global organization of nearly 28,000 members. She will lead a 67-member National Board of Direction and a global organization of 105 Posts and Field Chapters and more than 28,000 members from throughout the military, public, private and academic sectors who are working to develop solutions for the country's infrastructure-related national security challenges.

“On behalf of the Society of American Military Engineers, I am thrilled to welcome Cindy Lincicome, F.SAME, as the Society's 103rd National President,” said SAME Executive Director Brig. Gen. Joe Schroedel, PE, F.SAME, USA (Ret.). “Cindy is absolutely the right executive leader for the infrastructure challenges our industry and government partners face today and for the foreseeable future. Her untiring dedication to producing lasting results over the past several years of national level leadership has already motivated SAME members around the world to strengthen SAME's core mission of leading industry-government collaboration, especially through our local posts. Military engineers, agency partners, industry and academic leaders and our members know Cindy and willingly follow her no nonsense lead. People give their best for Cindy. As a result, I expect our stakeholders will be invigorated by the collective effort that she is already inspiring for SAME to give our best.”

Cindy has actively served in the Society for more than 20 years, volunteering in multiple national, regional, and Post positions, and was inducted into the organization's prestigious Academy of Fellows in 2017. SAME National President, Lincicome, stated “I am humbled and honored to serve our Society. This is an incredible year for the Society as we launch new resources and programs to bring greater value to our members. We have never faced a time in our country or in our industry or in SAME that has so much potential!! As the cornerstone on which the Society was founded, industry-government engagement remains “mission-essential” for SAME. My top initiative this year is a continued emphasis on Industry-Government Engagement. SAME’s over 28,000 members can COUNT on US to bring the best in industry and government through collaborative engagement, especially at the local post level. We are a Society of Posts and that separates us from most other professional organizations. SAME and ourr Posts will share knowledge and best practices, conduct joint training, and collaborate on issues to solve the most challenging problems at all levels.” For more information on SAME’s governance, visit www.same.org/governance.
